WINTERBURN NEWS BRIEFS

A symbol of gay parties and social gatherings have been the brightly lighted homes seen in this district during the festive week. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hamilton have returned from a recent trip to Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Furnel spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. James Harcourt of Vancouver. Mrs. Frank Wild had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. James Wild and Ray of Hobbema for New Year's.

P.O. George LaRue who is now stationed in Edmonton, spent New Year's with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Albert LaRue.

The RCMP here have been very busy recently in this vicinity checking for safety stickers on cars.

The Junior hockey team met with Garden Valley team last Thursday and really played a grand game. The score was 6-7 in favor of Garden Valley, after an overtime play.

"We wish and need to create within the boundaries of the District area a unit of balance between distribution of population and resources, rural and urban uses, adequate communications and good detailed design," stated Edmonton Town Planner Noel Dant, the city's representative on the Commission, in support of a motion urging the adoption of "the concept of satellite towns within the District Planning Area". The Commission, which includes representatives from the district towns of Devon, Leduc, Fort Saskatchewan, St. Albert and Morinville, unanimously supported the motion. Selection of sites for such towns will await further study of the practical possibilities and limitations of available locations.

On behalf of the Town of Beverly, Mr. S. H. Pagne raised the problem of protecting the newly-constructed highway between the Clover Bar bridge and the Town of Beverly against excessive intrusion by such development as filling stations, auto courts, dine and dance halls and truck buying stations. Mr. H. N. Lash, Provincial Director of Town and Rural Planning, indicated that regulations were being considered which specifically establish limited-access highways. Considering this a problem of general and basic interest, the Commission requested that the Provincial Planning Advisory Board inform the Commission of proposed changes in regulations. At such time the problem of highway control will be fully reviewed.

Acting more ignorant than you actually are usually has its advantages.

Struck By Truck, Dies En Route To Hospital

A St. Albert farmer died en route to an Edmonton hospital shortly after he had been struck by a passing truck Monday evening at 6:30.

Colin Ross, a 48-year-old farmer, was walking to town on No. 2 Highway and was about two miles north of St. Albert when he was struck by a truck driven by Frank Banack. The truck skidded on an icy patch on the highway.

A. Martell, of Morinville, a passing motorist, picked up the injured man and took him to Dr. William D. Cuts in St. Albert, who ordered him to be removed to a city hospital immediately. He died enroute.

An inquest into the fatality will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30, as announced by Dr. M. M. Cantor, chief provincial coroner. Neil Ross, father of the deceased, came to the district in 1906, where he farmed on a large scale. Besides his father, he is survived by his wife, Anna; one brother, Neil Ross, Jr., mayor of St. Albert; and two sisters, Miss Alice Ross and Mrs. Hubert Armstrong, both of St. Albert.

Funeral arrangements are being made by Connelly-McKinley.

ST. ALBERT NEWS BRIEFS

School room parties were the order of the day Friday morning. In the afternoon the Community League gave their annual party for children 12 and under.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Cuts entertained for more than 20 couples on Friday evening at a midnight supper and sing song morning.

Curling is in full swing. There are 28 rinks. A bonspiel will be held the third week of February.

The skating rink is also in good condition. Not enough tickets have been bought. Why?

"Convicted" by Howling Red Mob in China

Sister Ste. Alphonse du Redempteur

Sister Ste. Marie Germaine

Sister Ste. Germaine

Sister Ste. Foy

Sister Ste. Victoire

THOUSANDS of devout Catholics living in Alberta are concerned about the eventual fate of five Sisters of the Immaculate Conception order. With 6,000 enraged spectators shouting judgment, a Red Chinese People's Court in the capital of Kwangtung Province recently sentenced two nuns to five years' imprisonment and expulsion from the country at the end of their terms. Two others were expelled for life and the fifth to simple expulsion. The five Sisters were convicted of the murder of children in orphanages they operated in Canton, but in defense of their work it was stated that children were diseased and dying of starvation were placed in their hands. Not all these children survived, hence the trumped-up charges of infanticide.

Fast Growing Province

Alberta ended the old year, 1951, with a faster growth than that of any other prairie province. This is a gratifying fact revealed by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. It is an indication that the future growth of this province will be progressively greater, owing to the increased industrial developments to follow the discovery of more and more oil deposits, and the consequent increase of other industries.

In former census years Alberta has always been behind the larger province of Saskatchewan, but the vaster natural resources of this province have now swept us into the lead with a population of 936,556 as compared to 796,169 ten years ago.

The change in population brings some changes in the representation of the West in the federal parliament, though in Alberta's case the increase is not yet sufficient to give us more seats in parliament. Alberta will still have 17 seats, but Saskatchewan will lose four seats, reducing its total to 16. Manitoba's population still trails the other two prairie provinces with a total of 771,815, an increase of 42,071, but drops one seat in parliament to a total of 10.

Thus Alberta takes the premier place on the prairies both in population and representation in parliament.

Now! Yellowhead Pass Highway?

The progress made in negotiations and plans for laying an $82,000,000 pipeline from Edmonton to Vancouver may stir up the lukewarm interest of the provincial government in the Yellowhead Pass route for the trans-Canada highway. At least the new development should convince Premier Manning that aside from political considerations the route is the logical, most practical and cheapest one for the highway to follow.

The Trans-Canada Highway System (Yellowhead Route) Association is planning to put pressure on the government and the general public to change the plans. Halfheartedly supported by the Social Credit Cabinet, and map the highway through Edmonton instead of Calgary. This route was selected by the C.N.R. for its main line to the Coast, and is now the route chosen by the Trans-Mountain Pipeline company, which should be a factor in convincing the government and all public bodies that this route presents the most feasible route.

It is true that up to now the thickest portion of population is in the south, with the exception of Edmonton city, and this fact, doubtless, was an argument favorable to selection of the Calgary route, but this situation is rapidly changing because of the oil discoveries in the north and other factors, and any government with half an eye to the future welfare and prosperity of the province as a whole would find the facts so important and convincing that they could not be denied. It may be that today there are more votes in the south than the north, but that is changing. Premier Manning and his advisers would show statesmanship and leadership of higher quality if action at government level is taken at once to rectify the plans for the highway and thus secure greater prosperity for all Albertans.

Result - No Honeymoon

MEDELLIN, Colombia — In this South American town, a bride-to-be was entertaining guests on the eve of her wedding recently, when a masked gunman entered the house unseen by guests and forced the girl into her bedroom, where he robbed her of a large sum of money hidden in a bureau drawer. The girl pleaded with the robber to leave via the garage, so as not to cause a scandal if guests saw him stealthily sneaking out of her bedroom. The gunman agreed and went through a door she opened. It led to another room instead of to the garage. The girl locked the door and summoned guests, who ripped the mask from the trapped intruder. The gunman was the bridegroom-to-be.

Eternal Rise In Cost of Living

By T. W. PUE

Probably one thing Canadians want in 1952, more than anything else, is a reduction in the cost of living. Special federal legislation may very well bring down the cost of living index in a few months, but if it does it will be only a temporary stay in the trend.

Those of us who experienced the ten years of depression from 1929 to 1939 passed through a period that was contrary to the general trend in rising prices and continually increasing cost of living. We must admit, in surveying history from this point, 1952, that commodities and service tend to increase continually in terms of pounds, shillings and pence, or dollars and cents.

T. W. PUE

Nineteen hundred years ago a laborer's pay was a penny a day. Perhaps in old Roman times the penny was created as a unit of exchange simply for the express purpose of representing a day's pay.

Gradually, through the centuries, a penny has been worth less and less. It is only a few years ago that a penny — two cents — would buy a copy of a daily newspaper. Today, newspapers sell at not less than 5c per copy and now in California 10c is the prevailing price of a daily paper on the streets of some cities.

Governments, businesses and individuals must face the fact that never again will our cost of living index return to 100, the 1939 rate. We should adjust ourselves to slow, continual rises of perhaps one or two per cent per year. Every precaution should be taken against quick, sudden changes. If the spiral rises too rapidly, it might founder and cause a temporary, but disastrous reversal of the procedure.

U.S. GOVERNMENT TO BLAME

The biggest headache Governments of the world have to face is the ever-present danger of out-of-hand inflation. To withdraw purchasing power, the government raises taxes. To pay for the extra taxes labor raises its price for work done and manufacturers raise the prices of their products. This causes another swirl in the spiral. Then more taxes are levied to extract more purchasing power and the business goes on and on like a giddy whirlwind.

The centre of the free world's finance is the United States. Every day the American Government pays out millions of dollars, recklessly, like a drunken sailor. Not since the days of Herbert Hoover has there been any honest attempt to reduce taxes and inflation. The U.S. is on a spending spree, so that its Government can always boast of the highest paid soldiers, marines, sailors, politicians, bureaucrats, capitalists and laborers in the world. They bid up the value of commodities in international world trade and continually embarrass other less wealthy countries that also try to buy on world markets.

YANKEE PSYCHOLOGY

The experience of the United States Army in building air bases on certain south sea islands during the recent war is typical of American psychology. When the U.S. Army landed there to recruit native laborers they were told the daily rate was 25c. Only a quarter for a full day's work—quite ridiculous, the Army Commandant concluded. The United States is always the biggest, wealthiest and boastful of any nation. Instead of paying a paltry two bits per day, they would pay $2.00 per day—and did.

Did the native laborers work harder? Did they say to themselves, "Boy, this is wonderful. We now get 8 days' pay for every day's work. We'll work every day as hard as we can and become wealthy, just like the Americans."

A few did, but the typical native figured it this way: "The Americans say me as much for one day's work as I used to get for 8 days. When I get my first day's pay I don't have to work for another 7 days."

Result: less work, less production, less real wealth.

CAN WE STOP INFLATION?

No, we can't stop inflation. It is a continual process that has been going on with only short interruptions, such as the depression of the thirties, since the time of Christ. What we have to do is put on the brakes to keep it from going too fast.

Our own Government is using good sense in holding back on non-defence spending and limiting credit sales and business expansion. They could do more by instituting certain price controls. The United States government, on the other hand, should make some determined effort to cut its non-defence government spending and call a halt to the spending spree that makes it the wealthiest, biggest, most-drunk sailor in the whole community of nations.

The Bible Today:

Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.—Hebrews 11:1.

Like a hideous skeleton from the closet of the past, the threat of religious war has broken into violence in the Suez Canal Area. With it, is added the threat of a Moslem versus Christian conflict, and the age-old struggle of east against west.

FROZEN WHEAT WARNING

Dear Sir—Late last winter, I warned of the danger of feeding frozen wheat, to brood sows, etc., as such sows would produce crippled and unthrifty litters. But my warning was not printed, a great pity, as by current press Alberta Department of Agriculture report says that swine crippling is more than usually prevalent now, "due to wet weather". I'm—experience is a hard and very expensive school to learn in, especially with bacon at its present high price. But, it's never too late to learn, and there is going to be a lot of frozen wheat again this year.

"POOR LITTLE GIRL"

Dear Sir—We read and approved of your open letter to Princess Elizabeth, but doubt if she'll ever see it. Poor little girl, her life isn't her own. The Royal Family are only servants to do the bidding of the nation. And such strenuous jobs they get to do. They aren't allowed to sign public autographs. Not even our Prime Minister can do that. We saw news pictures of the royal visit to Edmonton. What large crowds there were! With these, and your paper coming regularly each week, I feel I'm getting to know your country quite well.

AUTHORITY OF BIBLE

Dear Sir—Did S. R. Porter of Edmonton read the Bible before making the statements he did in his letter? He says dozens of men wrote the book in accordance with their own ideas, prejudices and imaginings. The Bible states in John 1, Verse 1: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God."

Many other scriptures attest to the validity of the Bible as the Word of God, and even describes disbelievers such as Mr. Porter "In whom the God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

Dear Sir—I would greatly appreciate getting a copy of the paper with T. W. Pue's letter to Princess Elizabeth. I heard about it from a friend who had a copy sent on from someone in Saskatchewan. Please don't overlook this.

SEARCH FOR TALENT

Dear Sir—Since the Search for Talent shows are coming back after New Year's, I would like to say to all rural districts, particularly Thorhild, "Shine up your talent and participate!"

After all, this show comes once a year, and all proceeds go towards crippled children. Furthermore, talent winners are given a chance to be heard over the air and, who knows, by some lucky you may be the 1951 Talent winner of the year. So come out and show what you really can do. No one is a loser. All are winners.

Thank you.

Twenty-Five Agricultural Groups Unite; Replace Class "C" Fair Association

Alberta's Class "C" Fair Association is no more. It is now the Alberta Agricultural Societies, with a new office and a new constitution in the making.

Last month official delegates from agricultural societies from all sections of Alberta met in the parliament buildings in Edmonton to consider how best to make their work more effective. Twenty-five were present, representing societies from as far south as Lethbridge, and from as far north as the Peace River.

These societies carry on a tremendously varied number of projects; from field days and tillage matches, through fairs and shows of various kinds, down to junior club work. Only 15 class "C" in the province; fairs were held in the province last year. At one time 140 were held. Society work is now developing into other fields, and being carried right out onto the farms.

Forty-one societies are now actively operating under the Alberta Agricultural Societies Act. In the words of Charles Parry, manager of the Lethbridge fair: "The time has come for all of us in society work to unite in one organization to unify our objects and purposes and to work together to attain them. We have much to give one another" in association; and by working together our work will be felt over the whole province."

MACDONALD HOLMES

The meeting was unanimous in its decision to carry on the former Agricultural Fairs Association under its new name, and with new objectives, and the executive was instructed to draft a constitution outlining these to put the organization on a sound footing.

The executive elected included: President, W. H. Miller, Olds; vice-president, Clyde Sulistowsky, Lethbridge; Edward Reynolds, Wetaskiwin and Macdonald Holmes, Edmonton.

Following the meeting the executive took immediate steps to implement the work, appointing Macdonald Holmes as secretary with offices at Radio Station CFRN, Edmonton, so that the secretarial office would be close to the Alberta Department of Extension which administers the Societies Act.

"We're ready to do business now," said Mr. Miller. "We're not waiting to finish the paper work before offering service to our member societies."

Any society that has a problem, Mr. Miller said, must feel free to write the Secretary, Alberta Agricultural Societies, c/o Radio Station CFRN, Edmonton, and the new organization will do all in its power to assist.

Mr. Holmes confirmed this. "Collectively," he says, "the societies in this province have a lot of experience, and any society undertaking a new project, or re-vamping an old, would do well to find out how the other fellow made it go. We think this is one phase of our work that can be started at once, and show results during this coming year. We can welcome letters, or better still, calls at the office from society executives when in Edmonton."

Mr. Holmes is the secretary-treasurer of the Edmonton and District Agricultural Society and Farm Service Director of Radio Station CFRN.

Engler Coach Ski Team At Banff

Bruno Engler, internationally known skier and mountaineer, has been appointed coach of the University of Alberta ski team, Dr. M. L. Van Vliet, director of physical education at the University of Alberta announced today.

Mr. Engler was born at Lugano, Switzerland, and came to Canada in 1939. He has been a ski instructor and guide at Sunshine Lodge, Mr. Norquay, and several ski resorts in eastern Canada. He originated the Columbia Icefield summer ski race in 1947, and in 1949 started the Southern Alberta Ski School at Haimore. He also was the first to organize the Crownsmen Pass Ski Tournament on a large scale and organized this tournament in 1949, 1950 and 1951.

During the Second Great War, Mr. Engler was an instructor in mountain warfare in the Canadian Army and for a time was technical adviser to the famed Lovat Scouts during their training in the Tonquin Valley in Jasper National Park. After the war, he was a ski instructor for the Canadian Army at Banff and Wainwright, holding the rank of lieutenant in the Banff Company of the Calgary Highlanders.

Mr. Engler now lives in Edmonton, where he is employed as a photographer with the provincial government's film and photographic branch. He is married, with two children.

110,000 Cars Test Proven

One hundred and ten thousand Alberta vehicles have been tested and have received the official safety stickers according to a report received from Hon. C. E. Gerhart, provincial secretary.

The new safety program, which went into effect on Jan. 2, requires that all vehicles must be test proven at government approved garages. There are 160,000 cars in the province.

FARM GRAIN DRYER DESIGNED

A machine designed by agricultural engineers of the Alberta Department of Agriculture and the University of Alberta shows promise of meeting the demand for a practical and economical grain dryer. Tests conducted during the past few days have been encouraging, says C. A. Cheshire, Extension Agricultural Engineer, and it is believed that this machine will help solve the problem of damp grain facing many of the farmers.

Equipment required for this method of grain drying consists of a granary with a false floor, an air duct, fan, heater and engine. Heated air is drawn by the fan and delivered under pressure to the bottom of the granary. A mimeograph showing principles and construction of the dryer has been prepared for distribution and is available from the District Agriculturists or from the Extension Service, Alberta Department of Agriculture, Edmonton.

WENDT-MacDONALD NUPTIALS HELD AT SACRED HEART CHURCH

GIBBONS — Multi-colored chrysanthemums banked the altar of Sacred Heart Church on Wednesday, Dec. 27 at 5 p.m. for a lovely mid-winter wedding in which Miss Jessie Catharine MacDonald, recently of Los Angeles and Seattle, formerly of Edmonton, became the bride of Mr. Richard Wendt of Seattle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDonald of Nanaimo. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. George Wendt of Columbia Falls, Montana. Rt. Rev. M. J. O'Gorman performed the ceremony.

Entering the church with her father, the bride wore a gown of white velvet, fashioned with a low-waisted bodice which featured a yoke of illusion. Her chapel length veil of matching illusion misted from a tiara of seed pearls. Her only jewellery was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom, and she carried a white prayer book garlanded with an orchid and strung with long white streamers. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Mary MacDonald, who wore a coral velvet gown fashioned similar to the bride's, with a high collar. Matching elbow-length mittens and Dutch-style hat trimmed with seed pearls completed her ensemble. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

The best man was Mr. Mark MacDonald, brother of the bride and ushering guests were two other brothers, Mr. Tony MacDonald and Mr. Donald MacDonald.

Music for the wedding was played by Mr. Lawrence Flynn, soloist. Mrs. Tony MacDonald, sister-in-law of the bride, sang "Pani Angelicus" and "Ave Maria."

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. MacDonald chose a two-piece grey frock trimmed with black velvet and complemented with a black velvet hat and corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to about 30 guests at the Club Mocomba when a toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. O'Gorman. Later about 150 guests attended a wedding dance at the club, where bride's table was centred with a triple tiered cake. Mr. Sam Gosselin proposed a toast to the bride. Leaving for Columbia Falls, where the newlyweds visited with the groom's parents, the bride changed to a two-tone grey worsted suit complemented with deep rose accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home in Seattle. For the past several months Miss MacDonald had been a stewardess with United Airlines, flying out of San Francisco, returning recently to be with her parents while making arrangements for her wedding.

STANLEY FRASER RETURNS HOME

GIBBONS — Stanley Fraser, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Fraser, of Gibbons, arrived home in time to partake of the Christmas holiday season with home folks and friends. Stanley, who enlisted with the Canadian Navy some time ago, has had a most interesting sojourn. He went from Cornwallis to Esquimalt, B.C., going to Halifax by way of the Panama Canal. He had 12 hours' leave in San Diego, California, and his sister, Stella, who is employed in California, met him there. After leaving California they sailed through Panama City, Balboa and several other interesting places, where they experienced intense heat. After getting to Halifax they made a trip to Montreal and Quebec. His ship, the HMCS Ontario, took part in the recent royal tour of Canada, when she carried Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip between Sydney, Nova Scotia, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island and St. John's, Newfoundland.

He was a member of the Royal

Guard. After this trip they came back by way of Panama to Esquimalt.

The 9,000-ton cruiser HMCS Ontario returned to her home base at Esquimalt, B.C., after a three and a half-month, 13,000-mile fall training cruise to ports on Canada's east coast, and hundreds of relatives and friends lined the pier at Esquimalt to welcome home the cruiser and its crew.

Stanley has been given a one-month Christmas leave before he reports for duty again.

Even though belatedly, a wish is expressed to parishioners and all others who in any way contributed towards these gratifying results.

LETTERS TO LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

I am a farmer, 29 years old. My parents are both dead and I am staying on the home place. I am a good manager.

I have had a good housekeeper for three years. She is a very good cook and also a good manager. She is fond of outdoor work, and horses, too. She tells me she loves me and cannot get along without me, but I have asked her several times to marry me and the answer she gives me is not now but to keep on asking her. She is very pretty—about 28 and single.

If she loves me as she says, I don't see any reason why she shouldn't marry me. Will you advise me what to do?

WORRIED.

Answer:

I can't see any reason for her refusal, either, if she really loves

you. She is certainly old enough and it would be a much better arrangement for you both than the present set-up. You did not say whether anyone else lived in the house with you or not. If not your housekeeper is likely to be talked about no matter how well she conducts herself.

Why don't you tell her that you are tired of her stalling and that if she doesn't marry you, you will start looking around for a wife, as you are not getting any younger.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

I have been going with a boy several months but I am not sure I love him. In fact, I think I would go back to another boy I was engaged to before I started with this one. We had a silly quarrel but we are both sorry about it now.

I hate to hurt this other boy. I don't know what he will do and I am afraid he might hurt himself if I break up with him. He has threatened to do so.

What must I do? L. D.

Answer:

If you are sure you love the first boy, there is only one thing for you to do, and that is to tell No. 2 exactly how you feel and that you would be doing him a great deal more harm by marrying him when you cared for someone else than you would by breaking up with him.

A wife who doesn't love her husband with all of her heart is no satisfaction to herself or to him. Neither of them will be happy. And if No. 2 is so emotionally weak that he threatens injury to himself if you break up with him, you will be afraid of him. Imagine a husband who brought up suicide every time he was thwarted.

Are you sure you love either one of them enough to marry him? The mere fact that you dilly-dally between the two of them makes me wonder.

There are so many ups and downs in marriage that the only thing that makes it beautiful is the feeling that life is nothing without this one person.

LOUISA.

Cyanide Guns Turned On Timber Wolves

The threat of timber wolves has become serious in the area north of Westlock. Farmers have found it necessary to lock their livestock in the barns during the night and keep a close watch on them during the day.

Field Crops Commissioner A. W. Wilson said his department has received numerous reports that wolves have killed livestock in the Flatbush area, about 200 miles north of Edmonton. He said cyanide guns of the type being used in the province's coyote control program will be set in the Flatbush region.

These guns, although designed to kill animals up to 250 pounds, only, killed one weighing 450 pounds recently in the Seba Beach area.

Former Alberta To Run In B.C. Elections

W. N. Chant, former MLA for Camrose, has been named prospective leader for the British Columbia Social Credit Party.

Mr. Chant now resides in Esquimalt, B.C., and he has been nominated by the Vancouver Island constituency. He has also been nominated to contest the Provincial riding of Esquimalt in the next Provincial election.

Party leaders will meet about Jan. 10 to set a date for the provincial convention at which a leader will be chosen.

W. A. C. Bennett, who bolted the Coalition Party and joined the ranks of Social Credit, is expected to be a contender for the post.

While swatting flies during my small granddaughter's visit last summer, I kept saying, "Oh, bad flies!" "Oh Grandma, they're not bad flies!" They go to Sunday School! I saw them there last Sunday!" J.B.W.

Noting signs of an electric storm, my husband and small son left the lake where they had been fishing. Because the lightning flashes came nearer and nearer on their way home, the child exclaimed, "Oh, Daddy, I wish I had joined the church last Sunday when I had a chance!" J.W.B.

Great Exercise
A portly amateur soprano wanted a job in a burlesque. She went to interview an agent and showed him a list of the "numbers" she could sing. The agent glanced through it and then looked at the girl.
"You've got a pretty good repertoire, haven't you?" he said.
"Well," replied the singer, with a slight blush, "it's the singing that develops one, you know."

Measure of Relief
While visiting in a small town which had its full share of divorced people, a prominent clergyman met a charming young lady who introduced him to her mother. The mother had recently married for the second time, and immediately after the introduction she said:
"You noticed that my name is not the same as my daughter's name, but please don't take me for a divorcee. Thank goodness, my first husband died."

Dressed Poultry To Be Handled On Graded Basis

On and after April 1, it will be compulsory for all dressed and eviscerated poultry to be purchased and sold on a graded basis in the cities of Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge, Medicine Hat and Red Deer, according to an announcement made recently by Hon. D. A. Ure, provincial minister of agriculture.

He said the government has decided to establish the necessary regulations for the sale of poultry on graded basis from producer and consumer groups.

The grading, Mr. Ure stated, will be conducted under the supervision of the federal department of agriculture. Distinctive tags or marks will be used to designate the various grades to be established.

The grading regulations will apply to all purchases and sales in the five cities, but will exempt producers who sell, transport or deliver dressed or eviscerated poultry produced on their own farms direct to the consumer.
